Let a game teach you history !

A 100 page illustrated encyclopaedia based on the school curriculum (middle school and high school) is available for further in-depth study. Produced with the help of an academic committee specialising in Versailles, Louis XIV and Vauban, including Pierre Arizzoli-Clémentel, Directeur General of the Museum and National Estate of Versailles, and Michèle Virol, Historian and Professor at IUFM.

You too can live at Versailles in the reign of Louis XIV !

Alchemy, espionage, intrigue, and treachery...

Here you are with Oscar at Versailles in 1682. An elaborate investigation awaits you. To solve it, you will need to put yourself into the skin of a 17th century gentleman and avoid the traps set for you by a mysterious enemy...

To achieve your goal you will need humour, logic and shrewd judgement...
Fight with a dagger ! Dance the minuet ! Use your catapult as in these old days.

The Sun King, Vauban, Seignelay - and over 30 fun, sinister and brilliant characters accompany you !
Valets, Marquesses and knaves - they are all there to help you and to entertain you - or to challenge you !

Discover the Château of Versailles in 1682 - the King's apartments, the gardens, the menagerie and the town, as well as numerous other areas of Versailles, some well-known, others unexpected !
